

BABCOCK BROWN

Spécifications:

- The Babcock brown lays a high number of large red eggs.
- She is very adaptable no matter the circumstances.
- She has a very quiet and strong temper.
- Viability 94%.
- Age for the first egg 18 weeks.
- Age at the end of the lay more than 80 weeks.
- 50% of the flock lays at 144 days.
- Peak of production 96%.
- Average egg weight 63.25.
- Number of eggs per hen housed 318.
- Average feed intake per day 120g.
- Bodyweight 2015g.
- Red feathers.
- This product is agreeable for organic and free range production.
- Production numbers for illustration only.

Disclaimer: All specifications describing performances of the above birds represent performance objectives obtainable under good environmental and management conditions. They are not a warranty or guarantee of performance.

Ets LANCKRIET

4, Rue de Lihons

80340 FOUCAUCOURT en SANTERRE - FRANCE

Phone: +33 3 22 85 77 10

Fax: +33 3 22 85 77 19

Email: infos@lanckriet.fr

Website: www.lanckriet.fr